Social stories are read by adult for free play center that Conrad chooses. Conrad follows along and can point to answers when asked questions about the story.

Before Handwashing at ECE program

Social Stories

Paraeducator reads social story to Conrad. Conrad engages in behaviors in the social story and successfully participates in the hand-washing routine.

At Circle time to support peer play and expanded play during free choice

Before

Handwashing at home

Conrad reads social story with Mom. Conrad follows along and can point to answers when asked questions about the story. Conrad engages in behaviors in the social story and successfully participates in the hand-washing routine (especially putting hands in the water without crying)

Hung at center locations where Conrad plays during

when playing with trains with family

Conrad reads social story with family member. Conrad shows train play behaviors demonstrated in social story.

Conrad reads social story with a peer. Conrad shows behaviors demonstrated in the social story (social skills and expanded play scenarios) when at that free play center.

At home, free choice