

Spencer's Adaptation Notes

What is currently happening?

Children have to wait for meal to be served and have a hard time waiting. They get in and our of chairs, touch each other and it's very loud.

What would you like to see happen?

I want the room to be quiet and calm. I need something for them to engage in at the tables.

How can we change the environment?

Turn down the lights and play soft music while the children are waiting.

How can we change the activity?

Make bins of books for the children to look at while they are waiting.

How can we change the materials?

Give children an appetizer to eat while waiting.

How do we change the requirements or instructions?

There is nothing written in this section of the PDF.

How can we provide assistance?

There is nothing written in this section of the PDF.

After you have made the changes, what is currently happening?

There is nothing written in this section of the PDF.
